reditors, in-

er, one PUBLES. Big

By the ho its priority AHEO EVERY THURSDAY BY or creditors come in ah & W. E. BRATTON rell, T. O. Breet Court House, Up Stairs.

Burglary, charges PERMS OF PUBLICATION. goods. Sentenced to thread after six months.

prisonment in the Penitent per sill be discontinued until all tion for New Trial, overrule paid unless at the option of the ted to, and sentence suspend as end of the year, it will be sentence of the penitent of the penitent of the ted to, and sentence suspend as end of the year, it will be sentence of the penitent of IS OF ADVERTISING. Term.

During the recent formal insertion, A liberal deduction will be made to yearly advertisers. All advertisements payable in advance or on demand.
The above terms must be strictly complied with ______ Special Notices, per line, five cents.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY OF VINTON COUNTY, OHIO.

J. P. PLYLEY, Judge of District and Common TERMS OF DISTRICT COURT-Sept. 16, 1881.
COM. PLEAS-Feb. 11, May 18 and September 28, 1841.

County Officers. B. P. HEWITT, Probate Judge. GEORGE LANTZ, Clerk Court of Com. Pleas. H. B. LACEY, Prosecuting Attorney. F. SHADES, Sheriff. KELSON RICHMOND, Auditor. J. Tarvery NE. Treasurer. JOHN STEVA

ALFRED VAPLES. YAPLIng in the llen, Marcus Walk-ATTYS & Coton and T. Mackey, G. MCARVO con-OFFICE ONE DO mass Clark & Co.,

WILL practice and en-VV Common Picas and in John T. MAGER of real estate, age of our CKEY, Messes, Muest theLLORS AT LAW party herrill, OHIO. of real estate, de.

Mesars. Foliett, Fester & Co., Columbus, O., Hoffheimer Brothers, Cincinnati O.,
Bullett & Fairthorne, Phila, Pa.,
Gibbs, Watson & Gibbs, N. Y. City,
James P. Tanner, Esq., Pittabur, Pa.,
Wm. B. Pierce, Cincinnati, O.

JOHN T. MACKEY is authorized, as Notary businet But the and

October 27 Platform WAMILTON, on. AT LAW GUTHRIE llogg a joining Country and ATTORNEY Shicago

M'ARTHUR, VINTELotel in Will Practice in theor publ H. B. LAGEY CAREFUL ATTENTION OGG bet ACEY,

A TTORNEY LAST LAW, praction the United sing Counties. Bon inent.

O. Y. GUNNING, TTORNEY AND COUNSELOR AT LAW Mearthur, Vinton County, Ohio, will practice in the Courts of Vinton and adjoining counties .- Jan. 8, 1861 .- 1y.

EDWARD HOLLAND, BOOT AND SHOE MAKER,

(AT N'DOWELL'S LATE STAND.)

On Hand and for Sale especially for this market by myself, and war ranted to be good and substantial. August 16, 1860-170;

H. C. MOORE, M. D. Physician and Surgeon,

ALLENSVILLE, OHIO.

Offers his professional services to the citizens of January, 8--lyr.

1. SHRECKENGAUST,

DEALER IN ATTORNEY JEWELRY.

MOARTHUR CRITTING.

Will Practice in Vintoles at Counties the m is toN, B. MONTGOMER.

BIGGS H Coriton Pront Street, s pu., PORTSMOUTH, druged Adjoining

R. MONTGOMERY & SON, WIN is restate. Nov. 3, 1859 .- tfo.

Hoetry.

throw skeir different estimates together to show their diversity of fastes.
One fellow, supposed to be a creaty old bash-aler, whose face is no pitted that no woman would kiss kim, perpetrates this slander:
"Men scorn to kiss among them relves, And scarca will kiss a brother; Women oft want to kiss ad bad, They smack and kiss each other.

How different this follow's hooven: "Let thy arm twine Around me like a zone of lave,
And thy fond lips, so soft,
To mine be passion atory pressed.
As they have been so oft." ganne's cold and measured rhyme is like Puritan's kiss, where he says: "Listen, Love of mine, O listen!

While thy dewy eyelids glisten, Let me press thy snowy forhead With a lover's hely kiss:— In offest to such distant, forehead pressing, car this by one of our lady posts who is, unoubtedly, up to the performance: Sweetest love,

Sweetest love,
Place thy dear arm beneath my drooping head
And let me lowly nestle to thy heart:
Then turn those soul-lit orbs on me, and press
My FARTING lips to taste the cestacy Imparted by each Lone and Linearine kiss, But sloxander Smith-the newly fiedged Child of the Stars-hear him in his epistle: "My soul leared up beneath thy timid kiss;

What then to me were grouns, Or pain, or death! Earth was a round of bliss, I seemed to walk on thorns."

Itliscellancous.

THE HUNTER'S LAST SHOT. A TALE OF AN OLD MAN'S REVENCE.

To see an old hunter or trapper in is buckskin garb armed with rifle, knife and tomahawk, is not a very nnusual thing in the city of St. Louis, for that town is the head quarters of the North Western For Company, and &c., are historically fixed thereto.

Some www years ago, I was sitting in the reading room of the Virginia WILL p. Sie as Partners in Vinton County Common Pleas and all Courts above. Par ticular attention paid to collections, and partition dressed and completely armed as a home in Springfield on Monday morn hunter or trapper is when in his ac. ing, en route for Washington. Hi customed wilds, entered and minutely scanned the fentures of every one presect. He was evidently quite old, and speech of Goy. Morton, at Indianopole very thin, and feeble, looking as if he lis, he said; had recently risen from a couch of sickness. Yet his dark eye beamed for me while I am on my journey to had taken quarters Monday evening. This tremendous gathering and which pervaded it.

not here! he turned away.

old hunter, who had before attracted fore commenced an inspection of every when men wrangle by the mouth with countenance.

more fierce than I ever saw glow in perhaps would be as well if they would human face before, and he strode up keep silent. [Applause.] The words to a young fellow who bore the name coercion and invasion are in constant of being the most daring harter of use about these days, and with some was trading agent when on the hunt, lons. Suppose we are simply to try and the most reckless gambler and if we can to ascertain what is the Auguste St. Vrain. Only three days stantly repeat them in terms of depre-Having returned to this place and opened a specific place most reasonable rates, and hopes to merit and receive the patronage of his old customers and wanty new ones, for all which he will be duly thankful.

On Hond and for Sala.

Trembled, nor did his face pale, but he without the consent of her people, and had been shooting at a bird. Yet now, when that old man stepped up or invasion! I very frankly tell you A large assortment of Boots and Shoes, made up before him, and he caught a glance of that I think it would be invasion, and his fierce eye, his courage and pres. I think it would be coercion of the election was known, the chil- other than difference of circumstances. ence of mind seemed utterly to fail people, if the people of that country him, and trembling, while the old were forced to submit; but if the Goy. not all be majors. "No, you fools," new position I shall do everything in mans voice, lond and clear as a bugle, ernment of the United States should indignantly replied the mother, "none my power for you. rang in his ear the old man's rifle was heard. As the duties upon foreign imports, tonished into silence the crowd drew [cheers,] or even the withdrawal of Bishop, in the following words: to either side, while St. Vrain tearing the mails from these portions of the his shirt bosom open and said in a low country where the mails are habitually people of all classes of my fellow- elect was grasped by the hand a hunhopeless tone:

Edele!

'Fire old man I deserve it!'

last word was spoken, the bullet from spitefully resolved that they will conthe old hunter's rifle had passed thr'o tinually resist the coercion or invading Her well-known character for enter- coremonies .- Can. Enq. his heart. He sank a corpse to the floor murmuring only one word Edele. do. why, then, it occurs to me that more distinguished than is her fidelity. The President Elect at Columbus.

In a moment he was seized - he estimation, are of a very light and ensign which has made no resistance—and hurried off airy character. If sick, the little pills "Braved the batt to prison. As I was then practising of the homeopathist would be alte- upon land and sea so many years .- said before, that he had no speech to make, neither had be time to do it.

The people under the solemn and dignified forms of the Constitution, have and that the same will be availed my divices. He received me and that the same will be courten the latter of Febcalmiy and kindly, but his voice was relation would not be like's regular marriage at all, but a sort of free love you will believe me when I say that it tenant Governor Kirk, in a short adwary feeble, as he replied:

tramped my last tramp. But as you tions, [Laughter.] Rissing, as a general thing, is a subject which see med to be about the only fried. What is the capecial sacredness of marked by wisdom, patriotism and more easily disposed of by testing than by leading than by leading than by leading than by leading as well a State—I speak not of that position justice to all sections of the country. Assumant: It is true as has been said ease my mind and tell you why I shot which is common to a State in and by from the Atlantic to the Pacific by the President of the Senate, that a down there too, before I found him, as a matter of original principle. Now, but I care not for life new.

told him the mere recital of his wrongs before a western Jury would acquit

One week afterwards, a few of us, who had discovered in him a brother of the 'mystic tie,' gave him henorable burial in a neighboring cemetry; for rest after a long and weary hunt.

Green were the sprige cast in his the names of the Chateau-Aubrey's, grave and true the hands which threy &c., are historically fixed thereto.

> Lincoln Leaves Home For Wash ington.

President Lincoln started from his left and went to the Planter's House given me, and still more for the very where I boarded. When I arrived at generous support which your State and two children-while the forward In the streets of Cincinnati-good lacked but a few minutes of dinner recently gave to the political cause, part was taken possession of by the old Gineinnatic-I should like to see time and the guests were gathering in which, I think, is the true and the just suite, the sitting-room waiting for a gong to cause of the whole country and of the no certainty that they mean the same tress of the White House as follows: Suddenly his eye flashed with a fire thing, while using the same words, it North-West Company, of which he temper and hot blood on some occaswildest banchee of the crowd when he meaning of these words, not from a was in the city. His name was dictionary, but from the men who conbefore I had seen him on Blody Island ciation of things they mean to express simply insist upon holding its own but your daddie and me." The old man stood and gazed on the the means for the preservation of the and undying devotion to the Union of body a moment then he mattered, 'It thing they say they so greatly love, these States, and a warm, filial and marriage at all, but a sort of free love you will believe me when I say that it tenant Governor Kirk, in a short ad- ernment.

for I have fired my last shot, end what that sect calls passional attrac-citizens that your administration of as follows;

'I was not the only one that loved than itself, and ruin all that is higger State, Kentucky the land of Clay, even upon the Father of this Country;

broken hearted, with it upon her be. ple of original right is it that one-fif- pleasant and safe. som. Both of them sleep in one grape tieth or one-ninetieth of a great nation, on the bank of the Yellowstone. For by calling themselves a State, have a a time I thought I should have to lay right to break up the nation. I say, mind, I am asking questions, I am not men: for you to reflect upon.

Having declared at the start that I intended to make short speeches, I given by one political party. This is upon political questions, but nebody is will conclude by again thanking you for this magnificent welcome. I bid the multitude. This outpoaring is as consoling circumstance, and from it you an affectionate farewell. [Great it should be. It is as it should be if we may conclude that all we want is cheering.

Lincoln Speaks at Cincinnati.

FEBUARY 12, 1861.

DEPARTURE FROM INDIANAPOLIS. "seven.foot" politician of Indiana,) country will likewise pass away.

The following scene actually occur-you have in your hand?

journal to her.) about ws?

gestive than the interrogatories them- quently been propounded to me kew Ris, Rochester, N.Y.

"Braved the battle and the breeze"

'It's little use you can be to me, sir, arrangement, to be maintained on is the earnest and united desire of our dress, to which Mr. Lincoln resp the General Government may be "MR. PRESIDENT, MR. SPEAKER, and under that promise ruined her .- in extent of territory, equal in the Constitution and the Union. I again to the American people and to that Age and shame made her keep the te- number of its people, where is that welcome you to our noble city, and God who has never forsaken them. cret until it could no longer be kept; State any better than that county?—

then he fled from her, left her to bring Would the change of their names an agreeable one, and that your jourterest felt in relation to the policy of a babe into the world, and then to de change their rights. On what princiney to our Federal Capital may be the new Administration. On this I

MR. LINCOLN'S REPLY.

Mr. Lincoln responded as follows: Mr. Mayor and Ladies and Gentle-

I tried to chear up the old man. I deciding anything, I am asking these Twenty-four hours age, at Indiaquestions with a request that you will napolis, the Capital of the State of seemed fitting that before speaking think somewhat upon this subject and Indiana, I said to myself that I had him. But he only shook his head and decide for yourselves. I want you never seen so many people together as should have gained a view of the muttered. 'My last shot is fired, I am to find out if you can where is the then stood before me; but I am no whole field to be sure, and after all, at the end of my last tramp.'

mysterious, orgaincal, rightful principle longer able to say so. I know what being at liberty to modify and change of a certain district or county, with its might have been ressonably expected, the course of policy as future events inhabitants by merely being called a from the citizens of Cincinnati, but may make a change necessary. I have State, to play tyrant over all its own this magnificent demonstration far not maintained silence from any want subdivisions, and to deny the authori. exceeds my most sanguine expecta- of real anxiety. It is a good thing he passed away as quietly as if he had ty of everything that is greater than tion. I know that the reception is not that there is no more than anxiety, for laid down by a pleasant camp fire to itself. I say I am deciding nothing a compliment to me personally, but to there is nothing wrong. It is a con-I am only proposing these questions the President elect of the United circumstance that when we look out

Douglas had been chesen President; it is as it should be if Bell had been chosen President; it is as it should be if Breckinridge had been chosen President; it is as it should be when any citizen of the United States is consti-The vicinity of the Bater House, tationally elected to the Chief Mugisbrightly, even fiercely in its sunken the National Capital, stopping as I do was again thronged by an eager crowd. unanimous expression of feeling could No. knowledgments of deeds and other instruments, socket, and his erect form seemed to many times, I say it is not possible for me under the circumstances to make atraggle against the mortal darkness and long speeches. Were I to do were had two compartments, and was as ouncires of a century. Under the any long speeches. Were I to do more had two compartments, and was as quarters of a century. Under the The old man shook his head as he than address such assemblies very signed especially to the President elect benign influence of Heaven, I hope finished his gaze around the room and briefly I should be entirely worn out and his party, he occupying the rear that these free institutions will conmuttering in a low voice, 'The cuss is not here! he turned away.

The cuss is before my journey's end. I appear portion with his family—Mrs. Lincoln, tinue to multiply. In a few short army and military officers, members before you mere to thank you for this before you mere to thank you for this control of the Legislature and others are in-Having finished my business, I also magnificent welcome which you have he was called by Sol. Bidwell, the and I also hope the difficulties of our vited, Mr. Lincoln and family are these demonstrations every four years | The February number of the Geneses - Presidents received with all the Farmer is received. It contains twenty sound. I had just entered when the whole world. [Tremendous cheering.] red, and we think should be set down. cordia! good-will of the people, and six "Prize Essays." The publisher of Solomon has said that there is a A gentleman, one of the suite, we be- when we as a Union are one people, the Genesce Farner offered a prize for my attention also came in, and as be- time to keep silence, [laughter.] and lieve, while passing through the rear and our national difficulties and tron- the best essays on each of a given numcar, was addressed by the future mis. bles are blown to the winds forever- ber of subject. The essays received > tions were propounded was more sug. as soon as I expected. It has fre the money in stamps to Joseph Hanselves. Imagine the successor of the the people of Kentucky and of the old Dutchman, who had unexpectedly with your institutions. We mean to been elevated to the position of a deal with you equally with ourselves. Mr. Wood, how do you spell your major of the militia. When the result There is no difference between us name? The old gentleman replied:

dren wanted to know if they would Fellow citizens of Kentucky, in my

After addressing a few words to the Thave sought you long, Auguste forts, [applause.] and retaking their St. Vrain and found you. Remember forts which belong to it, [renewed after some effort, managed to ascend classified as his constituents, he again cheering.] and enforcing the laws of the steps, and edging his way through thanked the growd, and retired from As he spoke, the omnions click of the United States in the collection of the growd appeared on the balcony, supported by the Mayor HONORED SIR: In the name of the cony to the rotunda, the President laughter. wielated, would any or all of those citizens I extend to you a cordial wel- dred or more times, and he only things be coercion? [Applause, and come, and in their behalf I have the reached his room through the active The old hunter had scarce waited cries of 'No.'] Do the professed low-honor of offering you the hespitalities interference of the police, who stayed for the word. For before St. Vrain's ers of the Union — those who have of Cincinnati. the tide of vulgar and impertment Our city needs no enlogy from me. curiosity. So ended the reception

> Conumbus, O., Wednesday, Feb. 13. At Xenia a large concourse had asis right-I have fired my last shot! the thing which is so bigh in their affectionate regard for that glorious sembled; firing of cannon and enthusiasm generally. Mr. Lincoln reiterated what he has

St. Vrain. Two years ago, I would the Constitution of the United States, Oceans, from the northern boundary very great responsibility rests upon have sooner shot myself than raise a for that all sgree to abide by—but hand to harm a hair on his head. He that position and relation a State was young handsome, brave as ever would carry with it out of the Union. I am deeply sensible of that sacredness by virtue of the cheering words, "Well him."

The connection with the Union. I am done thou good and faithful servant."

I know what you all know, that without the cheering words, "Well done thou good and faithful servant." The old man's voice grew hus y, speaking of that assumed right of a his lip quivered, he paused a moment State, at a primary principle back of and then he went on:

Its connection with the Onion. I am done thou good and latter and anx a name, or perhaps with a reason why a lieus concourse not only the citizens of the Constitution, to rule all that is less. Ohio but also many from our sister upon me a test and not reason. him. My Edele—then only sixteen, than itself.

I ask you, where does exist that she loved him and he pretended to right? If a State in one instance and love her. He promised to marry her > have received from some a degree of credit for keeping silent, and from others some depregation, I still think was right. In the varying and repeatedly shifting scenes of the present without a precedence which could enable us to judge by the past, it has upon the difficulties of the country I States. Most heartily do I thank you. there is nothing that really hurts any I have been reminded that it is not body; we entertain different views time, patience and a reliance on that God who has never forsaken this peo-

> > "Fellow-citizens, what I have said I have said altogether extemporaneously, and I will now come to a

After this speech both Houses adjourned.

Mr. Lincoln made a few remarks to the crowd outside, and was afterward received by the citizens generally.

A leves is being held this evening at the residence of Governor Dennison, to which Mr. Lincoln and suite, the guests of Governor Dennison.

GENESEE FARMER "PRIZE ESSAYS."-I spoke once before in Cincinnati, were submitted to a competent com-Mis, L.-How do you "flourish?" and at that time I addressed a large mittee, and those deemed best were Gentleman .- Well, I thank you. portion of my remarks to my Ken- awarded the prize. This Prize Essays Mrs. L .- Is that a Cincinnati paper tucky brethren. I told them that the number of the Farmer is well worth Republican party would ultimately the cost of the paper for a year. Those Gentleman. — Yes, (passing the beat the Democratic party, if they wishing a good agricultural and horizonal to her.) Mrs. L .- Does it say any thing eat principles. I advised them to ter or cheaper work than the Geneses make the change, but it was not re- Farmer, A cost only fifty cents a year The manner in which these ques. ceived, and the result has come fully Now is the time to subscrine. Send flourish?" The "us" reminded us of son treated you. We mean to leave witness. Upon giving his name the anecdete of the wife of an honest yen alone, and in no way interfere Ottiwell Wood-the Judge, addres-

> "O doub.e T, I double U, E double L, Double U. Double O. D.

Upon which the astonished lawyer laid down his pen, saying it was the most extraordinary name he ever met in his life, and after two or three at-He was welcomed to the city by Mayor on one side and Mr. Greenwood on tempt, declared be was unable to recthe other. On his way from the bal- ord it .- The Court was convelsed with

The Southern Confederacy— Election of President an Vice— President.

MONTGOMERY, ALABAMA, Februar 9. Jefferson Davis, of Mississippi, was unanimously elected President of the Cenfedrate, State of North America to day, and Alexander H. Stephons Vice-President.

A LUMBERING CONCERN. saw-raill.

Morro fon a crocekry dealer .-Ewers, &c.

IF Tomarous make good cat-sup. but a mouse makes a cat-supper, ...

TP The Chicago Zonaves have offered their services to the U. S. Gov.

of sunsyer ambiency all in tail? the support of the General Gerera Per